

The three shows offer a coordinate interpretation of how to land from modernity down to earth without crashing.

The success of the reset entirely depends on how we deal with Oil which has become the defining question of our age: is The Museum of Oil built by Territorial Agency a threat for the future, a description of the present, or an anticipation of the time when we will look at Oil as something of the past?

Reset modernity! offers an occasion for a reset in six steps of how to handle the shift from Globe to Earth.

Armin Linke Appearance of that which cannot be seen gives a unique entry into the hidden industrial, administrative and technical sites of modern institutions.
